ÉDITION

EXPLORE

WORLD

A REMARKABLE ANTIQUE CITY

Located in an exceptional panorama beyond the Gironde estuary, the archeological site of Fâ, in Charente-Maritime, welcomes you for a trip to the Gallo-Roman world. A real source for scientists, it reveals little by little an antique port city, one of the most important of the Atlantic seafront that played a key economic role with Mediolanum (Saintes), but also with the rest of the Roman Empire.

A visit to the museum, featuring the furniture discovered during the excavations, and a walk through the site and its monuments will allow visitors a better understanding of the history and the organisation of the area.

THE MUSEUM

The museum features around 1,000 objects discovered during the excavations and allows the visitors to understand the organisation and the setting of this antique port city.

The Museum and Gallo-Roman site of Fâ of Barzan, like the Paleosite of Saint Césaire, the Cité de l'Huître of Marennes and the Échappées Nature, contributes to the will of the Department of Charente-Maritime to propose a rich cultural and leisure offer accessible to all.

Because in Charente-Maritime, there is not a day without an event or a site to discover, come and share the secrets, surprises and stories of our beautiful department !
